

Santa Rosa Junior College

As a participant in the College to Career Program, I agree to the following:

I will:

- Take responsibility for myself and my actions
- Do all the work assigned to me
- Come to class and to work on time
- Always be respectful of my instructors, classmates, other college faculty and staff, co-workers and supervisors.
- Meet all required appointments, and contact the C2C program in advance if I need to reschedule
- Be responsible for my own transportation to and from work and school
- Participate in developing a plan which includes college courses geared towards my skill building and employment goals
- Participate in identifying my skills, interests, needs and goals
- Identify any accommodations I might require at school or on a job
- Be open to positive and constructive feedback
- Be open to talking about how my disability affects me
- Do all the work it takes to find a job
- Contact my instructors and educational coach if I will be absent
- Strive to meet my teachers' and employers' expectations
- Always behave appropriately and maturely as an adult
- Communicate with my instructors, counselors, or family about problems or issues I need help with
- Maintain excellent attendance at school and my job
- Follow the rules of my instructors, my employers and the college (including the SRJC Student Standards of Conduct, available online)
- Work to build my employment skills to gain a great job by the three year end goal of College to Career
