

Transition to College Workshops

Learn how you can help facilitate high school seniors transition to SRJC in fall 2017. Transition to College (TC) is a program designed to support students with disabilities continue their access to supports while they are in college. Case managers, RSP teachers, and/or counselors who work with students currently with IEP's or 504's are encouraged to attend. Representatives from the Disability Resources Transition to College Program will present information and be available for questions.

Workshop Topics:

- Process for referring students to the Disability Resources Department
- How to prepare high school seniors accessing supports at SRJC
- Ways to facilitate high school seniors' participation in the transition process
