

Fall
Course	Title (Link to Course Outline)	Section	Format	Description
DRD77/DSS 11	Disability and Identity	1555	Online Asynchronous	Students will analyze representations of disability in popular culture and identify the impacts of perceptions and identity of people with disabilities. This course will explore the evolution of disability culture in the United States. This course is intended for all students, with or without disabilities, and will focus on inclusion and equity.
DRD78/DSS 12
DRD313	Success Strategies for Promoting Mental Health	0896 Late start	Online Synchronous	This course is designed to promote the academic success of students with mental health conditions. Students will gain a basic understanding of common factors that contribute to mental health conditions, as well as strategies to improve emotional regulation, stress management, and self-advocacy.
DRD363	Introduction to Career Development	1948 Late start	Online Asynchronous	In this course, students will address career planning and job search techniques, with an emphasis on career interests and values, labor market trends, job seeking and interview skills, and disability management in the work place.
DRD368.1	College Success 1: Notetaking and Time Management	0214	In-person	This course provides opportunities for students to explore and practice organization, time management, and note-taking skills. It also includes topics specific to the use of disability related services and campus resources.
DRD368.2	College Success 2: Comprehension and Test Taking Strategies	0215 Late start	Online Asynchronous	This course provides opportunities for students to explore and practice concentration, memory, reading strategies, test preparation, and test-taking strategies. It also includes topics specific to disability related services and campus resources.
DRD390.2	Communication Skills	0369	In-person	This course will provide students with an overview of the communicative process and strategies for effective communication in daily life, especially focusing on school and workplace environments, as they relate to individuals with disabilities. Students will identify and apply strategies that address the functional limitations of their disability.
DRD700	Learning Strategies	1588 0739	In-person Online Asynchronous	Through this course, students will receive specialized instruction and/or support to maximize their college success.

		2023	Online Asynchronous
DRD705	Coping Strategies for Hearing Loss	0721 Late start	Online Synchronous	This course provides education and support for adults with hearing loss. Students will learn about hearing technology (cochlear implants and hearing aids), community resources, and overcoming communication challenges.
Spring
Course	Title (Link to Course Outline)	Section	Format	Description
DRD77/DS 11	Disability and Identity	4870	Online Asynchronous	Students will analyze representations of disability in popular culture and identify the impacts of perceptions and identity of people with disabilities. This course will explore the evolution of disability culture in the United States. This course is intended for all students, with or without disabilities, and will focus on inclusion and equity.
DRD352	Stress Management for Academic Success	4202 Late start	Online Synchronous	This course will explore principles and techniques of stress management. It also includes topics specific to disability management.
DRD363	Introduction to Career Development	4255 4734 Late start	In-person Online Asynchronous	In this course, students will address career planning and job search techniques, with an emphasis on career interests and values, labor market trends, job seeking and interview skills, and disability management in the work place.
DRD368.1	College Success 1: Notetaking and Time Management	5197	In-person	This course provides opportunities for students to explore and practice organization, time management, and note-taking skills. It also includes topics specific to the use of disability related services and campus resources.
DRD368.2	College Success 2: Comprehension and Test Taking Strategies	5359 Late start	Online Asynchronous	This course provides opportunities for students to explore and practice concentration, memory, reading strategies, test preparation, and test-taking strategies. It also includes topics specific to disability related services and campus resources.
DRD700	Learning Strategies	5404 6363 6365	In-person Online Asynchronous Online Synchronous	Through this course, students will receive specialized instruction and/or support to maximize their college success.

SANTA ROSA JUNIOR COLLEGE

Building on a Legacy of Excellence

dis Ability
resources

DRD705	Coping Strategies for Hearing Loss	6129 Late start	Online Synchronous	This course provides education and support for adults with hearing loss. Students will learn about hearing technology (cochlear implants and hearing aids), community resources, and overcoming communication challenges.
--------	--	--------------------	--------------------	---